Unlike other DMZ tours, Paju DMZ Tour offers you a different experience. Camp Greaves, located in the DMZ in Paju, was the place where U.S. troops were stationed during the Korean War, and was returned to the Korean government after the armistice agreement. Currently, it has been transformed into a peace and security experience facility, where you can experience special activities such as making your own 'soldiers' metal chain identification' and wearing military uniforms. In addition, you can observe North Korean land from the Odusan Observatory.

Korean Folk Village

Korean Folk Village is an open-air museum located in Yongin, Gyeonggi Province, South Korea. It showcases traditional Korean life and culture from the late Joseon period. The Korean Folk Village is a popular tourist destination for both locals and international visitors who want to experience traditional Korean culture and history.

Suwon Hwaseong

Suwon Hwaseong is a UNESCO World Heritage site located in Suwon, South Korea. It was built in the late 18th century by King Jeongjo as a fortress and palace complex. The fortress walls span almost 6kilometers and are dotted with four gates and a number of watchtowers. You can walk along the walls, explore the palace buildings, and enjoy cultural performances and events held within the site.

Suwon Nammun Market

Suwon Nammun Market is a traditional market located in Suwon, South Korea. The market has a history that dates back to the Joseon Dynasty, and it is one of the largest and oldest markets in the country.
